The proof shall show the day and manner of service and may be (1) written acknowledgment of service, on the original of the copy served, by the attorney or person in charge of his office receiving a copy thereof, or (2) by certificate of a member of the bar of this court; (3) by affidavit of the person who mailed or otherwise served the papers, or (4) by any other proof satisfactory to the court.

If an affidavit of mailing or of service is attached to the original pleading, it shall be attached underneath the same so that the character of the pleading is easily discernible.

Failure to make the proof of service required by this subdivision does not affect the validity of the service; and the court may at any time allow the proof of service to be amended or supplied unless it clearly appears that to do so would result in material prejudice to the substantial rights of any party.

Upon request, the original document must be provided to other parties for review.

 - b. A party opposing a motion shall indicate a willingness to submit the motion for decision without oral argument by including the statement: "Oral argument not required," on the title page of the opposition papers, just below the date and time scheduled for hearing the motion. Alternatively, such party may telephonically notify opposing counsel and the assigned judge's law clerk of any willingness to submit the motion on the briefs, not later than the Wednesday before the Monday hearing date for the motion.

- c. If either party indicates a willingness to submit a motion for decision without oral argument, the adverse party shall promptly, but in any case not later than four (4) calendar days before the hearing date, notify the law clerk of the assigned judge, by telephone, whether or not there is concurrence in having the motion decided without oral argument. If so, the matter may be removed from the motion hearing calendar, at the court's discretion, and the parties shall be so notified. If the adverse party does not concur in submission of the motion without oral argument, the matter may remain on the calendar, for such argument, if any, as the court may deem appropriate under the circumstances.
3. Argument by telephonic conference. At the discretion of the court, argument concerning a noticed motion may be conducted through the use of a telephone conference call, said call to be arranged, initiated and paid for by the party proposing this method of oral argument. No oral motions will be recognized, except in open court with the consent of the judge presiding. Pursuant to the provisions of Civil Local Rule 7.1(b.2) all hearing dates for any motion shall be obtained from the law clerk of the judge to whom the case is assigned. Service by United States postal overnight mail delivery or by private overnight mail delivery adds only two days to the applicable period of notice. The extension of time for service does not extend court filing deadlines. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(e), extending the time within which a right may be exercised or an act may be done, does not apply to the notice periods governed by this section. Motions, notices of motion, opposition and supporting documentation shall not be accepted for filing unless accompanied by proof of service demonstrating either hand-delivery or compliance with this section's mailing provisions.

Neither the clerk nor any deputy shall have any discretion in determining the judge to whom any matter is assigned, the action of the clerk being ministerial only. The method of assignment chosen by the judges shall be such that the judge to whom any particular matter is to be assigned, in accordance with this rule, shall not be known by or disclosed to the clerk, or any member of the staff, or to any other person, until after such action or proceeding has been filed and numbered.

The judge to whom a case is assigned may transfer such a case at any time to a consenting judge in the interest of efficient administration of the judicial business of the district.

- b. Assignments to New Judges. Upon the induction of a new judge, the clerk shall ascertain the number of cases which comprises an equal share of all cases then pending, and the number of cases assigned to each active judge. The clerk shall then indicate to each active judge the number of cases to be transferred to the new judge.

It is within the discretion of each active judge to determine which cases shall be transferred to the new judge. The new judge may refuse to accept any such transfer where there are grounds for recusal, in which instance the transferor judge shall transfer a different case to the new judge.

The clerk shall then add the name of the new judge to the random selection system that governs the assignment of new cases to active judges.

- c. Temporary designation. If a judge is unavailable to handle matters pertaining to his/her cases, he/she may designate another judge who will handle them until the designating judge is available. In the event a judge does not so designate, or the designated judge is unavailable, the chief judge may handle the unavailable judge's matters or designate another judge to handle them until the unavailable judge or his/her designee is available.
- d. Low Number Rule, Criteria. The clerk shall promptly examine the original complaint or petition in each civil action and proceeding hereafter filed and ascertain whether any one or more civil actions or proceedings pending or any one or more currently filed appear (1) to arise from the same or substantially identical transactions, happenings, or events; or (2) involve the same or substantially the same parties or property, or (3) involve the same patent or the same trademark, except where in one or both of the actions concerned, the same patent or trademark is joined with other patents or trademarks which do not cover the same or substantially identical things or devices; or (4) call for determination of the same or substantially identical questions of law; or (5) for other reasons would entail substantial duplication of labor if heard by different judges.
- e. Notice of Related Case, Duties of Counsel. Whenever counsel has reason to believe that a pending action or proceeding on file or about to be filed is related to another pending action or proceeding on file in this or any other federal or state court (whether pending, dismissed, or otherwise terminated), counsel shall promptly file and serve on all known parties to each related action or proceeding a notice of related case, stating the title, number and filing date of each action or proceeding believed to be related, together with a brief statement of their relationship and the reasons why assignment to a single district judge is or is not likely to effect a saving of judicial effort and other economies. The clerk will promptly notify the court of such filing. This is a continuing duty that applies not only when counsel files a case with knowledge of a related action or proceeding but also applies after the date of filing whenever counsel learns of a related action or proceeding.
- f. Definition of Related Action. An action or proceeding is related to another action or proceeding where both of them:
 - 1. Involve some of the same parties and are based on the same or similar claims, or
 - 2. Involve the same property, transaction, or event, or
 - 3. Involve substantially the same facts and the same questions of law.
- g. Duties of Clerk. Whenever it shall appear to the clerk that any one or more of the above circumstances set forth in Civil Local Rule 40.1(d) exist, it shall be the duty of the clerk to report the cases in question to the judges concerned at the earliest date practicable.

The clerk's report shall set forth, as to each action or proceeding listed therein: (1) the case number, (2) the fullest practicable statement of the names of all parties, (3) a brief statement of the nature of the case and the relief sought, (4) the name of the attorney for plaintiff or petitioning party, and (5) such other information as shall, in the opinion of the clerk, assist in determining whether a case should be transferred under this "low-number" rule. The clerk's report shall be accompanied by an appropriate order for the signature of the judges concerned with the proposed transfer.

- h. Assignments and Transfers. In order to avoid unnecessary duplication of judicial effort, all pending civil actions and proceedings, which are determined to be related to any other pending civil action or proceeding pursuant to the criteria set forth in Civil Local Rule 40.1(d) shall be assigned to the district judge to whom the case was originally assigned, or the magistrate judge if the magistrate judge is handling the case by consent, pursuant to Civil Local Rule 40.1, the case first filed of any given series of cases (i.e., the case bearing the lowest case file number in the series). Orders for transfers of cases subject to this "low-number" rule shall be made and entered at the earliest practicable date following commencement of the action or proceeding.

The decision by the magistrate judges as to whether or not to transfer the case to the magistrate judge assigned to the lowest numbered case is independent of the district court judge's decision to transfer. Such decision by the magistrate judges having the high and low numbered cases will be based on the exercise of their sound discretion considering issues of effective case management and settlement.

- i. Transfer Limitation. No single series of cases comprising more than ten in number may be transferred to a single judge pursuant to this order without the consent of the transferee judge.

Civil Rule 40.2 Notice of Party with Financial Interest

If documents were provided only to the party seeking recovery, that party must specify the purpose of acquisition and photocopying of the documents served. In the absence of a specific showing, recovery shall be denied.

7. Maps, Charts, Models, Photographs, Summaries, Computations, and Statistical Summaries.

- a. The cost of preparing charts, diagrams, videotapes and other visual aids to be used as exhibits is taxable if such exhibits are reasonably necessary to assist the jury or the court in understanding the issues at the trial. An explanation of how the above related to a material issue in the case shall be provided.
- b. The cost of photographs, 16" x 20" in size or less, is taxable if admitted into evidence, the cost of photographs attached to documents required to be filed and served on opposing counsel is limited to 8"x10". Enlargements greater than 16" x 20" are not taxable except by order of the court.

9. Premiums on Undertakings, Bonds or Security Stipulations. The party entitled to recover costs shall ordinarily be allowed premiums paid on undertakings, bonds or security stipulations, where the same have been furnished by reason of express requirement of the law, or on order of the court or a judge thereof, or where the same is necessarily required to enable the party to secure some right accorded him in the action or proceeding.

10. Removed Cases. In a case removed from the state court, costs incurred in the state court prior to removal shall be recovered by the prevailing party in federal court to the extent they are covered in this rule or otherwise permitted by state law.

11. Admiralty. Fees for compensation, as set by general order, for keepers of boats, vessels and other property attached or libeled are taxable as costs.

- c. Costs Not Allowed. Unless a party shall substantiate the claim by reference to statutes or decisions for the following costs, the following will not ordinarily be allowed: (1) accountant's fees incurred for investigation, (2) the purchase of infringing devices in patent cases, (3) the physical examination of an opposing party, (4) courtesy copies of exhibits furnished to opposing counsel without request, and (5) rental of equipment for use at court hearings or trial.
- d. Costs Where Offer of Judgment Filed. (See Rule 68, F.R.Civ.P.) If the defendant offers a judgment in a certain sum which is rejected by the plaintiff, and the case thereafter goes to trial with the resulting recovery (plus any authorized pre-offer costs and attorney's fees) of only the amount previously offered by the defendant, or less, then the defendant is the prevailing party. No costs shall be allowed to either party if the court is unable to clearly determine the prevailing party.
- e. Costs Against the Government. (See 28 U.S.C. § 2412)
- f. Party Entitled to Costs. The determination of the prevailing party shall be within the discretion of the court in all cases except where such determination is inconsistent with statute or the F.R.Civ.P. or the rules of the appellate courts. If each side recovers in part, ordinarily the party recovering the larger sum will be considered the prevailing party. The defendant is the prevailing party upon any termination of the case without judgment for the plaintiff except a voluntary dismissal under F.R.Civ.P. 41(a).
- g. Method of Taxation of Costs.
 - 1. At the time specified in the notice, the party objecting to any item of costs contained in said bill of costs shall present said objections in writing, specifying each item to which objection is made and the ground of the objection, and file any affidavit or present facts relied on which may be rebutted by the opposing party.
 - 2. The clerk shall thereupon proceed to tax the costs, and shall allow such items specified in said bill of costs as are properly chargeable as costs. The clerk shall make an insertion of the costs in the docket.
 - 3. The taxation of costs made by the clerk shall be final, unless modified on review as provided in Local Rule 54.1.h.
 - 4. Notice of the clerk's taxation of costs shall be given by mailing a copy of the bill as approved by the clerk to all parties in accordance with Rule 5, F.R.Civ.P.
 - 5. Except as otherwise provided by law, costs will be taxed on the date set notwithstanding the fact that an appeal may have been filed.
- h. Review of Costs. A review of the decision of the clerk in the taxation of costs may be taken to the court on motion to re-tax by any party in accordance with Rule 54(d), F.R.Civ.P., and Civil Local Rule 7.1.

Such costs bill to be filed within ten (10) days of the filing and spreading of the mandate of the court of appeals in the district court. The district court does not tax or re-tax appellate costs. The certified copy of the judgment or the mandate of the court of appeals, without further act by the district court, is sufficient basis for issuance by the clerk of the district court of a writ of execution to recover costs taxed by the appellate court.
- j. Writ of Execution for Costs. The clerk shall, upon request, issue a writ of execution to recover costs or attorney's fees included in the judgment:
 - 1. Upon presentation of a certified copy of the final judgment in the district court; or

Civil Rule 65.1.2 Bonds and Sureties

- a. When Required. A judge may, upon demand of any party, where authorized by law and for good cause shown, require any party to furnish security for costs which may be awarded against such party in an amount and on such terms as are appropriate.
- b. Qualifications of Surety. Every bond must have as surety either: (1) a corporation authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to act as surety on official bonds under 31 U.S.C. Sections 9301 - 9304; (2) a corporation authorized to act as surety under the laws of the State of California; (3) two individual residents of the district, each of whom owns real or personal property within the district of value sufficient to justify the full amount of the suretyship; or (4) a cash deposit of the required amount, made with the clerk and filed with a bond signed by the principals. An individual who executes a bond as a surety pursuant to this subsection will attach an affidavit which gives the full name, occupation, residence and business addresses and demonstrates that the individual owns real or personal property within the district. After excluding property exempt from execution and deducting liabilities (including those which have arisen by virtue of suretyship on other bonds or undertakings), the real or personal property must be valued at no less than twice the amount of the bond.

When real property is listed in a proposed surety's affidavit, or a trust deed on real property is proposed to be posted as security for a bond required under this rule, the prospective surety shall provide either a title report showing title in the name of the surety; or an opinion letter by an attorney that the legal description on the deed of trust is accurate, and that the surety has title. The value of all real property or personal property listed in a proposed surety's affidavit or otherwise posted as security shall first be approved by the magistrate judge or district judge.

- c. Court Officers as Sureties. No clerk, marshal or other employee of the court, nor any member of the bar representing a party in the particular action or proceeding shall be accepted as surety on any bond or other undertaking in any action or proceeding in this court. Cash deposits on bonds may be made by members of the bar on certification that the funds are the property of a specified person who has signed as surety on the bond. Upon exoneration of the bond, such monies shall be returned to the owner and not to the attorney.

Trust deeds accepted by the court shall be recorded in the county where the real property is located. The trust deed shall show in the upper left-hand corner the name of the attorney of record, address of this court, name of the party, and case number. The trust deed shall show the United States of America as Beneficiary. Once recorded, the trust deed shall be forwarded to the clerk of court. When exonerating a bond to release a trust deed and to reconvey it to the surety, releasing a passport, automobile title, or other real property, the order must be clearly entitled "order to exonerate a bond". A sample order is available from the clerk's office.

- d. Examination of Sureties. Any party may apply for an order requiring any opposing party to show cause why it should not be required to furnish further or different security, or to require the justification of personal sureties.
- e. Approval of Bonds by Attorney and Clerk (or Judge).
 1. Attorney. Every recognizance, bond, stipulation or undertaking hereinafter presented to the clerk or a judge of the court for approval, where approval by the court is required, shall have appended thereto a certificate of the attorney for the party for whom the bond is being filed substantially in the following form:

This bond has been examined and recommended for approval as provided in Civil Local Rule 65.1.2, and the within bond (is) (is not) required by law to be approved by a judge.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 _____

Attorney

Such endorsement by the attorney will signify to the court that said attorney has carefully examined the said recognizance, bond, stipulation or undertaking, and that the attorney knows the contents thereof; and the purposes for which it is executed; that in the attorney's opinion the same is in due form, that the attorney believes the affidavits of qualification to be true and has determined whether the bond is required to be approved by a judge.

2. Clerk (or Judge). A recognizance, bond, stipulation or undertaking shall further have appended thereto a statement of approval by the clerk or judge, if approval by the judge is required, substantially as follows:

I hereby approve the foregoing bond.

DATED: _____, 19 _____

Clerk (or United States District Judge or Magistrate Judge)

f. Supersedeas Bonds.

1. Approval, Filing and Service. If eligible under Civil Local Rule 65.1.2, the bond may be approved and filed by the clerk. A copy of the bond plus notice of filing shall be served on all affected parties promptly.
2. Objections. The court shall determine objections to the form of the bond or sufficiency of the surety.
3. Execution. Except where otherwise provided by Rule 62, F.R.Civ.P., or order of the court, execution may issue after 10 days from the entry of a judgment unless a supersedeas bond has been approved by the clerk.

g. Summary Judgment Against Sureties.

1. The Judgment. Every bond within the scope of Civil Local Rule 65.1.2 will contain the surety or sureties' consent that in case of the principal's, surety or sureties' default, upon notice of not less than twenty-eight days the court may proceed summarily and render judgment against them and award execution.

2. Service. Any indemnitee or party in interest who seeks the judgment provided by Civil Local Rule 65.1.2.g will proceed by motion and with respect to personal sureties and corporate sureties will make the service provided by F.R.Civ.P. 5(b) or 31 U.S.C. Section 9306, respectively.

h. Filing.

1. Filing of Security. Upon application of any party, and for good cause shown, the court may require any plaintiff, any nonresident removing defendant, or any nonresident party to a civil action transferred to this court from another district to file security for costs.
2. Form of Security. The security for costs shall consist of a bond in the sum of $250.00 or such other amount as the court may order. It shall secure the payment of all costs of the action which a party may ultimately be directed to pay to any other party.
3. By Other Parties. Upon good cause the court may order original or additional security to be given by any party.

Civil Rule 66.1 Receivers

- a. Appointment of Receivers. Application for the appointment of a receiver may be made after the complaint has been filed and the summons issued.
 1. Temporary Receivers. A temporary receiver may be appointed without notice to the party sought to be subjected to a receivership in accordance with the requirements and limitations of Rule 65(b), F.R.Civ.P.
 2. Permanent Receivers. A permanent receiver may be appointed after notice and hearing upon an order to show cause. This order shall be issued by a judge upon appointment of a temporary receiver or upon application of the plaintiff and shall be served on all parties. The defendant shall provide the temporary receiver (or, if there is no temporary receiver, the plaintiff) within five days a list of the defendant's creditors, and their addresses. Not less than five days before the hearing, the temporary receiver (or, if none, the plaintiff) shall mail to the creditors listed notice of the hearing, and file proof of mailing.
 3. Bond. A judge may require any receiver appointed to furnish a bond in such amount as deemed reasonable.
- b. Employment of Experts. The receiver shall not employ an attorney, accountant or investigator without an order of a judge. The compensation of all such employees shall be fixed by the court.
- c. Application for Fees. All applications for fees for services rendered in connection with a receivership shall be made by petition setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services and shall be heard in open court.
- d. Deposit of Funds. A receiver shall deposit all funds received in a depository designated by a judge, entitling the account with the name and number of the action. At the end of each month, the receiver shall deliver to the clerk a statement of account and the canceled checks.
- e. Reports. Within thirty days of appointment, a permanent receiver shall file with the court a verified report and petition for instructions, which shall be heard on ten days' notice to all known creditors and parties. The report shall contain a summary of the operations of the receiver, an inventory of the assets and their appraised value, a schedule of all receipts and disbursements, and a list of all creditors, their addresses and the amounts of their claims. The petition shall contain the receiver's recommendation as to the continuance of the receivership and the reasons therefor. At the hearing, the judge shall determine whether the receivership shall be continued and, if so, shall fix the time for future reports of the receiver.
- f. Notice of Hearings. The receiver shall give all interested parties at least ten days notice of the time and place of hearings of all:
 1. Petitions for the payment of dividends to creditors;
 2. Petitions for confirmation of sales of property;
 3. Reports of the receiver;
 4. Applications for fees of the receiver or of any attorney, accountant or investigator, the notice to state the services performed and the fee requested; and,
 5. Applications for discharge of the receiver.

Civil Rule 67.1 Disbursements of Registry Funds

- a. Disbursement of Funds. Upon the entry of a judgment following a court or jury trial, funds, if any, on deposit in the registry of the court shall be disbursed only by order of the court after the time for appeal has expired, or upon written stipulation by all parties approved by the court.

Each order directing the clerk to disburse funds must be clearly entitled “order to disburse funds” and shall be without conditions to be met prior to disbursement of said funds. The order shall also contain the taxpayer identification number and mailing address of the party entitled to said funds; and instructions about collecting the fee if it is an interest-bearing account. A sample order is available from the clerk’s office.

- b. Deposit. Any funds, received in either civil or criminal cases, may be retained in a non-interest-bearing treasury account as necessary to arrange for their deposit in an interest-bearing account.
- c. Automatic Deposit.
 - 1. Unless otherwise ordered by a district judge, all funds deposited in the registry of the court in which the principal exceeds $4,999.99 shall be deposited into a passbook savings account.
 - 2. The clerk is authorized to deduct a fee for the handling of all funds deposited with the court and held in interest-bearing accounts or instruments. The fee shall be equal to that authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States and set by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The fee shall be withdrawn whenever income earned becomes available for deduction and shall be deposited in the U. S. Treasury, without further order of the court.
- d. Exceptions to Automatic Deposit.
 - 1. It shall be the responsibility of the interested party to serve the clerk or chief deputy personally with any order which directs a registry deposit under terms and conditions other than those provided in c. If the clerk or chief deputy is not personally served with such order, it will be presumed that the court has no notice, actual or constructive, of the terms and conditions of such order.
 - 2. Requirements. Any order obtained by a party or parties in an action that directs the clerk to invest funds or change any investment deposited in the registry of the court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2041 in an interest-bearing account or instrument shall include the following:

to United States Magistrate Judges

- a. All of the District's civil § 1983 prisoner caseload shall be assigned to the magistrate judges for disposition, either upon consent of all parties or, in the case of an objection to magistrate judge jurisdiction, upon submission of proposed findings and recommendations to the district judge, unless the district judge orders otherwise.

Nevertheless, the assigned magistrate judge will conduct all necessary hearings and submit proposed findings of fact and recommendations for the disposition of all motions excepted from the magistrate judge's jurisdiction by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), unless the district judge orders otherwise.
- f. In those cases where the clerk has assigned the case to a district judge, all hearing dates for any matters on which a dispositive ruling is required shall be obtained from the law clerk of the magistrate judge to whom the case has been assigned on a report and recommendation basis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 7.1. The magistrate judge shall then file his or her report and recommendations with the court and set dates for the filing of written objections pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Written objections, if any, shall be directed to the district judge assigned to the case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C).

Additional notices may be furnished to the parties at later stages of the proceedings, and may be included with pretrial notices and instructions.

The plaintiff shall be responsible for securing the execution of a consent form by the parties and for filing such form with the clerk. No consent form will be made available, nor will its contents be made known to any judicial officer, unless all parties have consented to the reference to a magistrate judge. A district or magistrate judge may advise the parties of the availability of a magistrate judge to try a civil case or hear a civil motion by consent. However, no action shall be taken to effect the voluntariness of the parties to consent or lack of consent to the magistrate judge. Except as otherwise provided by local rule, the proceeding shall be governed by the F.R.Civ.P. Written findings of fact and an order based thereon shall be filed by the judge when dismissing the proceeding or when imposing discipline. Civil 83.10 Jury Selection Plan

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1861 through 1869, as amended, the following Jury Selection Plan (the "Plan") is hereby adopted by this court, subject to approval by a reviewing panel and to such rules and regulations as may be adopted from time to time by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

- a. Applicability of the Plan. This Plan is applicable to the Southern District of California, which consists of the counties of San Diego and Imperial.
- b. Policy. It is the policy of the court that all litigants in this court, entitled to trial by jury, shall have the right to grand and petit jurors selected at random from a fair cross section of the community, and that all qualified citizens resident within the District, shall have the opportunity to be considered for service on grand and petit juries and shall have an obligation to serve as jurors when summoned for that purpose.
- c. Management and Supervision of Jury Selection Process.
 1. The clerk of court shall manage the jury selection process under the supervision and control of the chief judge or authorized judge designated by the chief judge.
 2. The court finds that electronic data processing methods can be advantageously used for managing this plan. Therefore, a properly programmed electronic data processing system, or a combination system employing both manual and electronic machine methods, may be used to select master wheel names, select names of persons to be sent questionnaires, select names of persons in the qualified wheel to be summoned, and to perform other clerical and record keeping functions as may be prescribed by the court.
 3. In the event of computer malfunction, or any overt or obvious deviation from this Plan caused by automation, the clerk, with the approval of the court, shall manually proceed from the last step correctly implemented.
 4. The court finds that the persons whose names appear on the registered voter lists represent a fair cross-section of the community in the Southern District of California. Accordingly, names of grand and petit jurors serving on or after the effective date of this Plan shall be selected at random from the registered voter lists of San Diego and Imperial Counties.
 5. The court authorizes the clerk of court, under supervision of the court, to determine whether persons are qualified, unqualified, exempt, or excused from jury service. Questionable requests for being excused or other status determinations shall be directed to the court.
- d. Master Wheel.
 1. The master wheel is the data base of names of those randomly selected from the list of registered voters.
 2. The master wheel shall be obtained as follows: The clerk shall ascertain the total number of registered voters in both counties and divide that number by the number of names to be selected for the master jury wheel. For instance, if there are 500,000 registered voters and 20,000 names are needed, 500,000 will be divided by 20,000 producing the quotient of 25. Then the clerk shall draw by lot a number, between zero and 26, and the name corresponding to that number from the source lists of each county, along with each 25th name corresponding to that number thereafter to the end of the source list.

The wheel shall maintain a division for each county between jurors who reside in each county. Jurors may be selected for service in one county, or both as the Court may direct.

3. At the clerk's option, and after consultation with the court, the selection of names from complete source list data bases in electronic media for the master jury wheel may be accomplished by a purely randomized process through a properly programmed electronic data processing system. Similarly, a properly programmed electronic data processing system for pure randomized selection may be used to select names from the master wheel and from the qualified wheel. Such random selections of names from the master jury wheel, including source lists by data computer personnel, must ensure that each county within the district is substantially proportionately represented in the master wheel in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1863(b)(3). The selection of names from the source list, master wheel and qualified wheel must also ensure that the mathematical odds of any single name being picked are substantially equal.
4. When requests for names to build the master wheel are issued to non-court personnel (e.g., computer personnel, local or state officials), the work shall be conducted pursuant to detailed instructions by the clerk of court. Once such selection is completed, the non-court personnel shall certify that the selection was completed pursuant to the instructions of the clerk of court.
5. In no event should the quantity of names placed in the master jury wheel be less than one-half of one percent of the total number of names on registered voter lists. No lists shall be disclosed to any person except pursuant to the district court plan or pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1867 or 1868.
6. The master jury wheel shall be emptied and refilled by the first of May every two years after the general national elections.
7. From time to time as required, the clerk shall, after reasonable public notice, publicly draw at random from the master wheel by electronic data processing procedures, the number of persons to whom questionnaires will be sent for the purpose of examining their qualifications for jury service.
 - a. Jury qualification questionnaires will be mailed to the names selected at such times as the clerk finds administratively convenient. The juror qualification questionnaire required by 28 U.S.C §§ 1864(a) and 1869(h) of the Act shall be in the form prescribed by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States.
 - b. After completed questionnaires are returned by prospective jurors they will be evaluated, and final determinations respecting the ineligibility of individuals persons will be noted. The record of names and addresses of eligible jurors shall constitute the "qualified wheel."
 - c. Persons failing to reply to the questionnaire within the ten days, or submitting replies indicating need for further investigation, may be summoned for personal interviews before the clerk should other means of communication fail to elicit or clarify replies. Except for extraordinary cause shown, such appearances shall be without payments of attendance fee or travel allowance.

e. Qualified Jury Wheel.

1. The clerk shall maintain a qualified jury wheel, or data base, for this district by county and shall place in said wheel the names of all persons drawn from the master jury wheel not disqualified, exempt or excused pursuant to this Plan. Names drawn from the qualified jury wheel shall not be made public except by order of court. The clerk shall provide copies of the information cards respecting the petit jury panel members who are selected for service in this court to the U.S. Attorney, and to Federal Defenders of San Diego, and to the District Court Library for the use of civil and other criminal practitioners. The cards will have jurors' Social Security Numbers, addresses and telephone numbers blocked out. The clerk shall provide copies of information cards to the U.S. Attorney of grand jurors who are selected for service.

2. Excuses on Individual Request. The district court hereby finds that jury service by members of the following occupational classes or groups of persons would entail undue hardship or extreme inconvenience to the members thereof and the excuse of such members will not be inconsistent with the Act and shall be granted upon individual request:
 - a. Persons over 70 years of age.
 - b. Any person having active care and custody of a child or children under 10 years of age whose health and/or safety would be jeopardized by absence of such person for jury service; or a person who is essential to the care of aged or infirm persons.
 - c. Persons who have served as a grand or petit juror in a federal court within the past two years.
 - d. Volunteer safety personnel. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term “volunteer safety personnel” means individuals serving a public agency (as defined in Section 1203(6) of Title I of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968) in an official capacity, without compensation, as firefighters or members of a rescue squad or ambulance crew.
3. Hardship Excuses. In addition to the members of groups and occupational classes subject to excuse from jury service on individual request as provided in this section, any person summoned for jury service may, on request, be excused upon a showing of undue hardship or extreme inconvenience, for such period as the court deems necessary, at the conclusion of which such person shall be notified again for jury service unless excused permanently if the court so directs. “Undue hardship or extreme inconvenience” as a basis for excuse from immediate jury service under this section shall mean great distance, either in miles or travel time, from the place of holding court; grave illness in the family or any other emergency which outweighs in immediacy and urgency the obligation to serve as a juror when summoned; in situations where it is anticipated that a trial or grand jury proceeding may require more than thirty days of service, the court may consider, as a further basis for temporary excuse, severe economic hardship to an employer which would result from the absence of a key employee during the period of such service; or any other factor which the court determines to constitute an undue hardship or to create an extreme inconvenience to the juror.
4. Exemption from Jury Service. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1863(b)(6) members of the following groups are exempt from jury service:
 - a. Members in active service in the Armed Forces of the United States.
 - b. Members of the fire or police departments of any municipality, county or district.
 - c. Public officers in the executive, legislative or judicial branches of the government of the United States, or any state, district, territory or possession or subdivision thereof, who are actively engaged in the performance of official duties. “Public officer” shall mean a person who is either elected to public office or who is directly appointed by a person or persons elected to public office
5. Qualification. Any person shall be deemed qualified to serve on grand and petit juries in this court unless such person:
 - a. Is not a citizen of the United States, at least 18 years old, who has resided for a period of one year within this judicial district;
 - b. Is unable to read, write and understand the English language with a degree of proficiency sufficient to fill out satisfactorily the juror qualification form;
 - c. Is unable to speak the English language;
 - d. Is incapable, by reason of mental or physical infirmity, to render satisfactory jury service; or

- e. Is the subject of a charge pending for the commission of, or has been convicted in a state or federal court of record of, a crime punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, and such person's civil rights have not been restored. (Written proof of restoration of civil rights must be received before a convicted felon may serve as a juror.)
6. Method of Excuse. The court or the clerk shall determine solely on the basis provided on the juror qualification form and other competent evidence whether a person is unqualified for or exempt or to be excused from jury service. Record of such determination shall be kept by the clerk.
7. Drawing from Qualified Wheel.
- a. Grand Jurors. From time to time, the clerk shall cause to be drawn at random such names as may be required from the qualified jury wheel. Grand jurors shall be randomly drawn from both counties maintaining the proportional relationship between the two counties. From those summoned, 23 names shall be chosen at random in the presence of a judge of the court on the day when said jurors report in response to summons. These shall serve as members of a grand jury. The remaining jurors summoned shall serve as replacement grand jurors or as petit jurors.
 - b. Petit Jurors. From time to time, the clerk shall cause to be drawn at random such names as may be required from the qualified jury wheel for the trial of jury cases.
9. In any two-year period, no person shall be required to:
- a. Serve or attend court for prospective service as a petit juror for a total of more than thirty days, except when necessary to complete service in a particular case;
 - b. Serve on more than one grand jury; or
 - c. Serve as both a grand and petit juror.

Civil Rule 83.11
Persons Appearing Without an Attorney In Propria Persona

- a. Any person who is appearing propria persona, (without an attorney) (i.e. pro se) must appear personally for such purpose and may not delegate that duty to any other person, including husband or wife, or another party on the same side appearing without an attorney. Any person appearing propria persona is bound by these rules of court and by the F.R.Civ.P. or F.R.Crim.P., as appropriate. Failure to comply therewith may be ground for dismissal or judgment by default.
- b. A party proceeding pro se shall keep the court and opposing parties advised as to current address. If mail directed to a pro se plaintiff by the clerk at the plaintiff's last designated address is returned by the Post Office, and if such plaintiff fails to notify the court and opposing parties within 60 days thereafter of the plaintiff's current address, the court may dismiss the action without prejudice for failure to prosecute.

Civil Rule HC.1
Habeas Corpus Proceedings -- Venue

The provisions of 28 U.S.C. §2241(d) provide for the filing of petitions in more than one judicial district. However, this court will make an independent determination of whether venue is appropriate in this district.

Civil Rule HC.2
Habeas Corpus Proceedings (28 U.S.C. § 2254) --
Petitions Not Involving the Death Penalty

- a. Assignment to Judges. The petition will be assigned to a district judge and a magistrate judge. In accordance with Local Rule 72.1(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), the magistrate judge shall conduct any and all of the duties specified in Rule 8 of the Rules Governing § 2254 Cases. If a petitioner has previously sought relief in this district with respect to the same conviction, the petition, if possible, will be assigned to the district judge who was assigned to the prior petition.
- b. Procedures for Considering the Petition.
1. Written requests for enlargement shall be made before the expiration of the time period to be extended and shall show good cause for the extension. The request for an enlargement of time must be served on the opposing party and a proof of service filed.
 2. To assist the court in exercising its duties under Rule 8 of the Rules governing Section 2255 cases, a party may make a request for an evidentiary hearing. The request shall include a specification of which factual issues require a hearing and a summary of the evidence the party proposes to offer. Any opposition to the request for an evidentiary hearing shall be made within fifteen (15) days from the service of the request.
- c. Evidentiary Hearing. If an evidentiary hearing is held, the court may order the preparation of a transcript of the hearing. Upon the preparation of the transcript, the court may establish a reasonable schedule for further briefing and argument of the issues considered at the hearing.
- d. Dispositive Rulings on the Merits.
1. In accordance with Civil Local Rule 72.1 and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), the magistrate judge shall submit to a district judge proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition. The magistrate judge shall file proposed findings and recommendations with the court and a copy shall be mailed to all parties. Within the time period set forth in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation, any party may serve and file written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations by timely filing an original and one (1) copy of the objections and a proof of service showing that the objections were served on the opposing party. The district judge shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which an objection is made. A district judge may accept, reject, seek clarification or modify in whole or in part any findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge.
 2. The district judge may also issue a separate written opinion which will be filed or state an oral opinion on the record in open court, which shall be promptly transcribed and filed.

Civil Rule HC.3
Habeas Corpus Proceedings (28 U.S.C. § 2254) --
Petitions Involving Death Penalty

- a. Applicability. This rule shall govern the procedures for a first petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 in which a petitioner seeks relief from a judgment imposing the penalty of death. A subsequent filing may be deemed a first petition under these rules to a particular petition if the original filing was not dismissed on the merits. The application of this rule may be modified by the judge to whom the petition is assigned. These rules shall supplement the Rules Governing § 2254 Cases and do not in any regard alter or supplant those rules.
- b. Notices from California Attorney General. The California Attorney General shall send to the clerk of this court (a) prompt notice whenever the California Supreme Court affirms a sentence of death; (b) at least once a month, a list of scheduled executions; and, (c) at least once a month, a list of the death penalty appeals pending before the California Supreme Court.

c. Notice from Petitioner's Counsel. Whenever counsel determines that a petition will be filed in this court, counsel shall promptly file with the clerk of this court and send to the California Attorney General a written notice of intention to file a petition. The notice shall state the name of the petitioner, the district in which petitioner was convicted, the place of petitioner's incarceration, and the status of petitioner's state court proceedings. The notice is for the information of the court only, and the failure to file the notice shall not preclude the filing of the petition.

d. Counsel.

1. Appointment of Counsel. Each indigent petitioner shall be represented by counsel unless petitioner has clearly elected to represent himself and the court is satisfied, after hearing, that petitioner's election is intelligent and voluntary. Unless petitioner is represented by retained counsel, counsel shall be appointed in every such case at the earliest practicable time. A panel of attorneys qualified for appointment in death penalty cases will be certified by a selection board appointed by the chief judge of the district. This board will consist of a federal defender, a member of the California Appellate Project (CAP), a member of the state bar, and a representative of the state public defender.

When a death judgment is affirmed by the California Supreme Court and any subsequent proceedings in the state courts have concluded, California Appellate Project will forward to the selection board the name of state appellate counsel and, if counsel is willing to continue representation on federal habeas corpus, California Appellate Project's evaluation of counsel's performance in the state courts and recommendation on whether counsel should be appointed in federal court.

If state appellate counsel is available to continue representation into the federal courts, and is deemed qualified to do so by the selection board, there is a presumption in favor of continued representation except when state appellate counsel was also counsel at trial.

In light of this presumption, it is expected that appointed counsel who is willing to continue representation and who has been certified by the selection board as qualified to do so would ordinarily file a motion for appointment of counsel on behalf of the client together with the client's federal habeas corpus petition. If, however, counsel for any reason wishes to confirm the appointment before preparing the petition, counsel may move for appointment, as described above, before filing the petition.

If state appellate counsel is not available to represent petitioner on federal habeas corpus or if appointment of state appellate counsel would be inappropriate for any reason, the court shall appoint counsel upon application of petitioner. The clerk of court shall have available forms for such application. Counsel may be appointed from the panel of qualified attorneys certified by the selection board, or the court may appoint any other attorney under 21 U.S.C. § 848(g). Either California Appellate Project or the selection board may suggest one or more counsel for appointment. The court may also request suggestion of one or more counsel from California Appellate Project or the selection board. If application for appointed counsel is made before a petition has been filed, the application shall be assigned to a district judge in the same manner that a petition would be assigned, and counsel shall be appointed by the assigned judge. The judge so assigned shall be the judge assigned when counsel files a petition for writ of habeas corpus.

2. Second Counsel. Appointment and compensation of second counsel shall be governed by §2.11 of Volume VII of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures, Appointment of Counsel in Criminal Cases.

e. Filing. Petitions as to which venue lies in this district shall be filed in San Diego.

Petitions shall be filed on a form supplied by the clerk of the court, and shall be filled in by printing or typewriting. In the alternative, the petition may be in a legible typewritten or written form which contains all of the information required by that form. All petitions (a) shall state whether petitioner has previously sought relief arising out of the same matter from this court or any other federal court, together with the ruling and reasons given for denial of relief, and (b) shall set forth any scheduled execution date.

An original and three copies of the petition shall be filed by counsel for petitioner. A pro se petitioner need file only the original. No filing fee is required.

The clerk of the court will immediately notify the California Attorney General's Office when a petition is filed.

When a petition is filed by a petitioner who was convicted outside of this district, the clerk of the court will immediately advise the clerk of the court of the district in which petitioner was convicted.

f. Assignment to Judges. Notwithstanding the general assignment plan of this court, petitions shall be assigned to judges of the court as follows:

1. The clerk of the court shall establish a separate category for these petitions, to be designated with the title "Capital case".
2. All active or combination of active and senior judges of this court shall participate in the assignments without regard to intra district venue.
3. Petitions in the capital case category shall be assigned blindly and randomly by the clerk of the court to each of the active or combination of active and senior judges of the court.
4. If the assigned judge has filed a certificate of unavailability with the clerk of the court which is in effect on the date of assignment, a new random assignment will be made to another judge immediately.
5. If a petitioner has previously sought relief in this court with respect to the same conviction, the petition will be assigned to the judge who was assigned to the prior proceeding.
6. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), and not inconsistent with law, magistrates may be designated by the court to perform all duties under these rules, including evidentiary hearings.

g. Transfer of Venue. Subject to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d), it is the policy of this court that a petition should be heard in the district in which petitioner was convicted, rather than in the district of petitioner's present confinement.

If an order for the transfer of venue is made, the judge will order a stay of execution which shall continue until such time as the transferee court acts upon the petition or the order of stay.

h. Stays of Execution.

1. Stay Pending Final Disposition. Upon the filing of a habeas corpus petition, unless the petition is patently frivolous, the district court shall issue a stay of execution pending final disposition of the matter.
2. Temporary Stay for Appointment of Counsel. Where counsel in state court proceedings withdraws at the conclusion of the state court proceedings or is otherwise not available or qualified to proceed, the selection panel will designate an attorney from the panel who will assist an indigent petitioner in filing pro se applications for appointment of counsel and for temporary stay of execution. Upon the filing of this application the district court shall issue a temporary stay of execution and appoint counsel from the panel of attorneys certified for appointment. The temporary stay will remain in effect for forty-five (45) days unless extended by the court.
3. Temporary Stay for Preparation of the Petition. Where counsel new to the case is appointed, upon counsel's application for a temporary stay of execution accompanied by a specification of nonfrivolous issues to be raised in the petition, the district court shall issue a temporary stay of execution unless no nonfrivolous issues are presented. The temporary stay will remain in effect for one hundred twenty (120) days to allow newly appointed counsel to prepare and file the petition. The temporary stay may be extended by the court upon a subsequent showing of good cause.
4. Temporary Stay for Transfer of Venue. (See paragraph g.)
5. Temporary Stay for Unexhausted Claims. If the petition indicates that there are unexhausted claims for which a state court remedy is still available, petitioner will be granted a sixty-day stay of execution in which to litigate the unexhausted claims in state court. During the proceedings in state court, the proceedings on the petition will be stayed. After the state court proceedings have been completed, petitioner may amend the petition with respect to the newly exhausted claims.

6. Stay Pending Appeal. If the petition is denied and a certificate of probable cause for appeal is issued, the court will grant a stay of execution which will continue in effect until the court of appeals acts upon the appeal or the order of stay.
7. Notice of Stay. Upon the granting of any stay of execution, the clerk of the court will immediately notify the warden of San Quentin Prison and the California Attorney General. The California Attorney General shall assure that the clerk of the court has a twenty-four hour telephone number to the warden.

i. Procedures for Considering the Petition. Unless the judge summarily dismisses the petition under Rule 4 of the Rules Governing §2254 Cases, the following schedule and procedures shall apply, subject to modification by the judge. Requests for enlargement of any time period in this rule shall comply with the applicable local rules of the court.

1. Respondent shall as soon as practicable, but in any event on or before twenty (20) days from the date of service of the petition, lodge with the court the following:
 - a. Transcripts of the state trial court proceedings.
 - b. Appellant's and respondent's briefs on direct appeal to the California Supreme Court, and the opinion or orders of that court.
 - c. Petitioner's and respondent's briefs in any state court habeas corpus proceedings, and all opinions, orders and transcripts of such proceedings.
 - d. Copies of all pleadings, opinions and orders in any previous federal habeas corpus proceeding filed by petitioner which arose from the same conviction.
 - e. An index of all materials described in paragraphs (A) through (D) above. Such materials are to be marked and numbered so that they can be uniformly cited. Respondent shall serve this index upon counsel for petitioner.

If any items identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) above are not available, respondent shall state when, if at all, such missing material can be filed.

2. If counsel for petitioner claims that respondent has not complied with the requirements of paragraph (a), or if counsel for petitioner does not have copies of all the documents lodged with the court by respondent, counsel for petitioner shall immediately notify the court in writing, with a copy to respondent. Copies of any missing documents will be provided to counsel for petitioner by the court.
3. Respondent shall file an answer to the petition with accompanying points and authorities within thirty (30) days from the date of service of the petition. Respondent shall include in the answer the matters defined in Rule 5 of the Rules Governing §2254 Cases and shall attach any other relevant documents not already filed.
4. Within thirty (30) days after respondent has filed the answer, petitioner may file a traverse.
5. No discovery shall be had without leave of the court.
6. Any request for an evidentiary hearing by either party shall be made within fifteen (15) days from the filing of the traverse, or within fifteen (15) days from the expiration of the time for filing the traverse. The request shall include specification of which factual issues require a hearing and a summary of what evidence petitioner proposes to offer. Any opposition to the request for an evidentiary hearing shall be made within fifteen (15) days from the filing of the request. The court will then give due consideration to whether an evidentiary hearing will be held.

- j. Evidentiary Hearing. If an evidentiary hearing is held, the court will order the preparation of a transcript of the hearing, which is to be immediately provided to petitioner and respondent for use in briefing and argument. Upon the preparation of the transcript, the court may establish a reasonable schedule for further briefing and argument of the issues considered at the hearing.
- k. Rulings. The court's rulings may be in the form of a written opinion which will be filed, or in the form of an oral opinion on the record in open court, which shall be promptly transcribed and filed.

The clerk of the court will immediately notify the warden of San Quentin Prison and the California Attorney General whenever relief is granted on a petition.

The clerk of the court will immediately notify the clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit by telephone of (a) the issuance of a final order denying or dismissing a petition without a certificate of probable cause for appeal, or (b) the denial of a stay of execution.

When a notice of appeal is filed, the clerk of the court will transmit the available records to the court of appeals immediately.

Civil Rule A.1 Scope of Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims

Application. These rules apply to claims governed by the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims of the F.R.Civ.P., which are referred to herein as Rules A through F.

Civil Rule B.1 Attachment and Garnishment Provisions

- a. Attachment and Garnishment. The verification of a complaint containing a prayer for process under Rule B, if made by plaintiff's attorney or other agent not having personal knowledge or knowledge acquired in the ordinary course of business of the facts alleged in the complaint as grounds of the claim, shall state the circumstances making it necessary for such attorney or other agent to make the verification and the sources of the information.
- b. Affidavit of Defendant's Absence. The affidavit of plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney that defendant cannot be found within the district, required by Rule B, shall state with particularity the efforts made to locate the defendant in the district.
- c. Judicial Authorization for Issuance of Writ. Before the clerk shall issue process of attachment and garnishment in accordance with Rule B, the verified complaint and affidavit required by Rule B shall be reviewed by a district judge or magistrate judge and, if probable cause be found to exist under Rule B, an order so stating and authorizing issuance of process shall issue. Alias process may thereafter be issued by the clerk upon application without further order of the court.
- d. Hearing and Summary Release of Property. Except in actions by the United States for forfeitures based upon federal statutory violations and actions by seamen for wages, whenever property is attached, any person claiming an interest in the property shall be entitled to a prompt hearing before a district or magistrate judge upon written notice to plaintiff, and to an order vacating the attachment forthwith and granting other appropriate relief unless plaintiff shows cause at the hearing why such an order should not issue.

Civil Rule C.1 Actions in Rem

- a. Actions in Rem. If, before or after commencement of suit, plaintiff accepts any written undertaking to respond on behalf of the vessel or other property sued in return for foregoing the arrest or stipulating to the release of such vessel or other property, the undertaking shall become a defendant in place of the vessel or other property sued and be deemed referred to under the name of the vessel or other property in any pleading, order or judgment in the action referred to in the undertaking. The preceding shall apply to any such undertaking, subject to its own terms and whether or not it complies with Civil Local Rule 65.1.2 and has been approved by a judge or clerk.
- b. Publication of Notice of Action and Arrest. Plaintiff shall cause the notice required by Rule C(4) to be published once in the official newspaper of the court. The notice shall contain the title and number of the action or proceeding, the date of the arrest, the identity of the property arrested, the name of the marshal, and the name and address of the attorney for plaintiff. It shall also contain a statement that claims of persons entitled to possession must be filed with the clerk of the district court and served on the attorney for plaintiff within ten days after the date of publication; that answers to the complaint must be filed and served within twenty days after filing of the claim, or within such additional time as may be allowed by a judge; that in lieu thereof, default may be noted and condemnation ordered ; and that applications for intervention under Rule 24, F.R.Civ.P., by persons claiming maritime liens or other interests, may be untimely if not filed within the time allowed for claims to possession.

- c. Intangible Property; Summons Under Rules C(3) and E(4)(c). The summons issued pursuant to Rule C(3) shall direct the person having control of funds (consisting of freight, the proceeds of property sold, or other intangible property that is the subject of the action) to show cause why such funds or property should not be delivered to the court to abide the judgment. Such a showing may be made by filing with the clerk and serving on the attorney for plaintiff (1) within ten days after the date of publication of notice of action and arrest or within such additional time as may be allowed, a claim under Rule C(6); and (2) within twenty days after filing of the claim, an answer to the complaint. If claim and answer are not to be interposed, such person shall deliver or pay over to the marshal the property or funds claimed by plaintiff with interest and costs. Service of such summons shall have the effect of an arrest of the property and shall bring it within the control of the court.

Civil Rule E.1 Actions in Rem and Quasi in Rem

a. Judgment by Default.

1. No default judgment shall be entered by the clerk in any Admiralty proceeding, unless ordered by the court.
2. On the expiration of the time to answer, if no answer or exceptions have been filed, the plaintiff or petitioner may have an ex parte hearing of the cause and a judgment without notice, except that;
3. If the claimant or defendant has appeared by attorney, 5 days' notice of the hearing shall be given. In actions by the United States for forfeitures based upon federal statutory violations, the notice to an owner or other known potential claimants shall be by certified or registered mail with return service to the last known mailing address.
4. If there has been no appearance by the owner of arrested or attached property, final judgment shall not enter against such owner or property until it is shown by affidavit that notice of the suit has been given pursuant to FRCivP Supp. B(2) and to:
 - a. The owner of the property (other than a vessel) if known to the plaintiff or petitioner, and otherwise the owner's agent, if known;
 - b. The owner, or managing owner, if more than one, of the vessel arrested or attached, if known, and the owner or managing owner, if more than one, recorded as such in the records of the United States Coast Guard, in the case of a documented vessel of the United States or in the records of the California Department of Motor Vehicles, in a case where it has issued a certificate of ownership, and if notice cannot be given to such owner, the agent of the vessel, if any be known, within the district;
 - c. Any holder of a security interest in the vessel arrested or attached whose interest is recorded as described in (b) above.

The notice to an owner or agent shall be by personal service within the district, or if that cannot be done, by first class mail with return service, if available, to the mailing address of record, or in the absence of a recorded address, to the last known address. Notice to others may be by either of the foregoing methods. Failure to give notice as provided by this rule shall be grounds for setting aside default under applicable rules, but shall not affect the title to property sold under a judgment.

b. Security for Costs and Marshal's Fees and Expenses; Forfeiture Actions Brought by the United States.

1. Costs. In an action covered by Rule E, a party may serve upon an adverse party and file notice to post security for costs. Unless otherwise ordered by a judge, the amount of such security shall be $500.00. The party notified shall post security within five days after service, unless exempted by law or by order of a judge upon good cause shown. Should the party fail to do so, it may not file additional papers nor participate further in proceedings, except for the purpose of seeking relief from this Rule. In actions by the United States for forfeitures for federal statutory violations, security for costs shall be paid pursuant to the procedures established in the customs laws, 19 U. S. C. §§ 1607 and 1608.

2. Marshal's Fees and Expenses. The marshal is not required to execute process in an action within Rule E unless deposit has been made (as provided in 28 U.S.C. §1921) covering fees and expenses of seizing and keeping the property arrested or attached for a minimum of ten days. The party requesting execution of process shall advance such additional fees and expenses from time to time as the marshal shall request until the property is released or disposed of pursuant to Rule E.

c. Execution of Process; Custody of Property.

1. Property in Custody of an Officer of the United States. Where property in the custody of an officer or employee of the United States is to be arrested or attached, the marshal shall deliver a copy of the complaint and warrant for arrest or summons and process of attachment to such officer or employee, or if the officer or employee is not found within the district, then to the custodian of the property within the district, and shall notify such officer, employee or custodian not to relinquish such property from custody except to the marshal, subject to further order of a judge.
2. Custody of Vessels; Keepers; Security; Expenses. Upon arrest or attachment of a vessel under process issued by the court, the marshal shall place one or more keepers thereon who shall remain aboard until the vessel is released or disposed of pursuant to Rule E, unless otherwise ordered.

On motion of any party, made after notice to the marshal and all parties who have appeared, a judge may order that custody of the vessel be given to the operator of a marina or similar facility, repair yard, or company regularly carrying on the business of ship's agent, if a judge finds that such firm or person can and will safely keep the vessel and has in effect adequate insurance to cover any liability for failure to do so. If the vessel must be moved to the place where custody will be maintained, a judge may also require insurance or other security to protect those having an interest in the vessel, as well as those claiming against her, from loss of or damage to the res, or liability of the vessel, incurred during the movement. The order allowing such custody shall fix fees to be charged therefor and for any other services to be rendered the vessel and shall provide for their payment to the marshal in advance. The provisions of this rule requiring insurance or security do not apply to the United States or to an officer, employee or agent thereof.

3. Vessel Operations. The marshal, deputies and keepers of a vessel arrested or attached shall not interfere with the conduct of cargo and other operations normal to a vessel in berth, repair work, drydocking or undrydocking (in the case of a vessel in a shipyard) unless a judge so orders. Neither the United States nor the marshal shall be liable for the consequences of the continuation of any such activities during the arrest or attachment. Upon motion of any interested party (which may be made ex parte when the urgency of the matter requires) and for good cause shown, a judge may order the marshal to prevent or require the conduct of any operations of a vessel under arrest or attachment.

- d. Appraisal of Property for Purpose of Bonding. Orders for the appraisal of arrested or attached property for the purpose of bonding and sale may be entered as of course by the clerk of the district court at the request of any interested party. If the parties do not agree in writing upon an appraiser, the clerk shall name one. Any party having a right may appeal forthwith to a judge from such appointment. The appraiser shall be sworn to the faithful and impartial discharge of duties before any federal or state officer authorized by law to administer oaths. The appraiser shall give one day's notice of the time and place of making the appraisal to the attorneys of record in the proceeding, and shall file the appraisal, when made, with the clerk of the district court.

e. Sales.

1. Notice. Notice of a sale of arrested or attached property shall be in accordance with 28 USC §§ 2001-2004. Unless otherwise ordered by a judge upon a showing of urgency or impracticality, notice of the sale of property shall be published daily for at least six days immediately before the date of sale.
2. Confirmation. Unless otherwise provided in the order, in all public auction sales by the marshal under orders of sale in admiralty and maritime claims, the marshal shall require of the last and highest bidder at the sale a minimum deposit in cash, certified check or cashier's check, of the full purchase price not to exceed $500, and otherwise $500 or ten percent of the bid, whichever is greater. The balance, if any, of the purchase price shall be paid in cash, certified check or cashier's check before confirmation of the sale or within three days of dismissal of any opposition which may have been filed, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. When the court has determined on the merits that a plaintiff or plaintiff in intervention has a valid claim senior in priority to all other parties, said plaintiff or plaintiff in intervention foreclosing a properly recorded and endorsed preferred mortgage on, or other valid security interest in the vessel may bid, without payment of cash, certified check or cashier's check, up to the total amount of the secured indebtedness as established by affidavit filed and served by that party on all other parties no later than ten days prior to the date of sale.

At the conclusion of the sale, the marshal shall forthwith file a written report to the judge of the fact of sale, the price obtained and the name and address of the buyer. The clerk of the district court shall endorse upon such report the time and date of its filing. If within three days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, no written objection is filed, the sale shall stand confirmed as of course, without the necessity of any affirmative action thereon by a judge; except that no sale shall stand confirmed until the buyer has complied fully with the terms of the purchase. If no opposition to the sale is filed, the expenses of keeping the property pending confirmation of sale shall be charged against the party bearing expenses before the sale (subject to taxation as costs), except that if confirmation is delayed by the purchaser's failure to pay any balance which is due on the price, the cost of keeping the property subsequent to the three-day period hereinabove specified shall be borne by the purchaser. A party filing an opposition to the sale, whether seeking the reception of a higher bid or a new public sale by the marshal, shall give prompt notice to all other parties and to the purchaser. Such party shall also, prior to filing an opposition, secure the marshal's endorsement upon it acknowledging deposit with the marshal of the necessary expense of keeping the property for at least five days. Pending the judge's determination of the opposition, such party shall also advance any further expense at such times and in such amounts as the marshal shall request, or as a judge orders upon application of the marshal or the opposing party. Such expense may later be subject to taxation as costs. In the event of failure to make such advance, the opposition shall fail without necessity for affirmative action thereon by a judge. If the opposition fails, the expense of keeping the property during its pendency shall be borne by the party filing the opposition.

3. Sale of Forfeited Property. In actions by the United States for forfeitures based upon federal statutory violations, the United States marshal shall sell or dispose of forfeited property or property to be sold pursuant to an order for interlocutory sale, in a commercially reasonable manner and in accordance with law unless otherwise provided in the order.

Civil Rule F.1 Limitation of Liability

Unless otherwise ordered by a judge, the amount of the security for costs required to be filed in an action for limitation of liability under Rule F (1) is $500. In such an action, the security for costs may be combined with the security for value and interest.

- c. Objections. Objections to requested instructions may be made either in writing or orally as time permits. Such objections should normally be accompanied by citation of supporting authority.
- d. Additional Instructions. Additional requested instructions and objections may be received by the court, in its discretion, at any time prior to counsels' arguments to the jury. The court shall in accordance with Rule 30, F.R.Cr.P., inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their argument.

Criminal Rule 32.1 Sentence, Judgment and Probation

- a. Presentence Reports
 1. Time for Hearing. Probation and sentencing hearings will normally be scheduled 77 calendar days (that is, 11 weeks) following the conviction if the conviction occurs on a Monday, or 77 calendar days following the Monday subsequent to the conviction should the conviction not occur on a Monday. If an evidentiary hearing is necessary, a subsequent date and time may be fixed by the sentencing judge. Counsel should check with the trial judge as to whether counsel should have witnesses available on the scheduled Monday sentencing date.

2. Modification of Schedule. For good cause shown, the court may modify the time schedule for sentence hearing or the filing requirements.
3. Presentence Report. The presentence report is to be completed, filed with the court, and mailed (or made available to defense counsel who make pickup arrangements) 35 days (that is, five weeks) prior to the date fixed for the sentencing hearing. It shall include the summary following this rule.
4. Review. Defense counsel shall review the presentence report with the defendant prior to and sufficiently in advance of the time for filing objections and requests for departure other than 5K1, if any, so as to meet the deadlines set hereinbelow. In cases where the defendant is acting as his/her own counsel (pro per), service is to be made by mailing a copy of the pre-sentence report to an out-of-custody defendant, with a specific notice attached advising the individual defendant of the filing dates for the filings described in this order which must be filed and served on the court, U.S. Attorney and Probation office.
5. Objections. Eighteen (18) days prior to the date fixed for the sentencing hearing, all objections, if any, to the presentence report shall be filed and served by the government and counsel for the defendant. If the presentence report is not timely filed -- that is, 35 days prior to the scheduled sentencing date -- then the defendant and the government shall have seventeen (17) days following the actual date on which the presentence report is filed within which to file and serve. Objections should not include arguments for aggravation or leniency, unless based on claimed errors in the presentence report.
6. Motions for Departure. Any motions for departure (other than 5K1) shall be filed and served by the moving party no less than thirteen (13) days before the sentencing hearing. The departure motion and supporting memorandum shall set forth a summary of the factual and legal bases for the requested departure. Opposition shall be filed and served no less than five (5) days before the sentencing hearing. If no opposition is filed, the departure motion will be deemed unopposed.
7. Other Matters. Matters other than objections, motions for departure, and responses thereto may be addressed in a sentencing memorandum filed and served no less than five (5) days before the sentencing hearing date, or may be presented orally at the time of the sentencing hearing. If the parties have executed a written plea agreement, it shall be summarized in a sentencing memorandum, or filed no less than five (5) days before the sentencing hearing if there is no sentencing memorandum filed and served.
8. Motions for Departure under 5K1. Motions for departure under 5K1 and any written materials relating thereto, including notice by sentencing summary chart, shall be delivered to the chambers of the sentencing judge and copies made available to opposing counsel five (5) days before the sentence hearing date. Service on pro per defendants will be accomplished on an ad hoc basis at the direction of the sentencing judge. Such motions and supporting written materials shall not be filed in the court clerk's file unless specifically so ordered by the sentencing judge after the opportunity to be heard has been afforded to counsel for the government and for the defendant.
9. Sentencing Summary Chart. All counsel shall file and serve no less than five (5) days before the sentencing hearing the form following this rule with all pertinent calculations set forth to summarize counsel's requested analysis of the guidelines applications in the case.
10. Addendum Addressing Objections. No less than five (5) days before the scheduled sentencing hearing, the Probation Department shall file and serve an addendum addressing all objections, if any, which have been timely filed by any party. Such report may additionally address any departure requests where probation is able to assist the court further.
11. Form. The sentencing date and time shall appear on the cover page of any objections, and replies thereto, to the presentence report, and any sentencing memoranda, in the space opposite the caption below the file number.

12. Government Filings. All government filings described hereinabove are to be filed with the court, together with a copy for the probation office and on that date served by mail on counsel for the defendant unless other specific arrangements are made by defense counsel. If defense counsel is Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., the government shall serve counsel their copy by delivering it to the clerk of the court to be placed in the Federal Defenders' box maintained in the clerk's office. All filings and service, if any, on behalf of the defendant will be accomplished by delivering the original and three copies to the clerk's office. (An in-custody, pro per defendant will accomplish the filing and service by mailing the original of any filings to the clerk of the court with a declaration of such delivery. The clerk will make three copies - one for the court and one each for the U.S. Attorney and the Probation Office, which will be so marked and placed in the respective boxes by the clerk.) The original and one copy will be provided to the court. The second copy designated "Probation" in the upper right-hand corner will be delivered to the clerk to be placed in the Probation office's box in the clerk's office. The third copy will be marked in the upper right-hand corner "United States Attorney's Office" and delivered to the clerk of the court to be placed in the U.S. Attorney's box maintained in the clerk's office.
13. Time Line Chart. Following this rule is a schematic diagram of the procedure delineated in this rule. The purpose of the diagram is to provide pictorial assistance to those involved in the sentencing process. The actual procedures, however, are those specified in the narrative of the Rule, not the diagram.
14. Late Filings Unacceptable. All counsel are hereby advised that the filing dates set forth in this rule are critical. Absent a showing of good cause, any late filings by counsel will not be considered by the court. Log these dates and comply.

Criminal Rule 32.1.1 Sentence, Judgment and Probation

- a. Notice of Arrest of Probation Violators. As soon as practicable after taking into custody a person charged with a violation of federal probation granted by a judge of this district, the marshal shall give written notice to the probation office and the United States attorney of the date and fact of such arrest or detention and the place of confinement of the probationer.
- b. Probation Revocation Hearing. Unless waived by the probationer after due notification of probationer's rights, a hearing shall be held on all alleged violations of probation where revocation is a possibility to determine whether a violation has occurred and if such a violation has occurred, the appropriate disposition. Prior to the hearing, the probationer shall be provided by the probation office with written notice of all alleged violations, and notice of the rights guaranteed, including the right to counsel and the right to appointed counsel if the probationer is indigent.

Criminal Rule 44.1 Right to and Assignment of Counsel

- a. Right to and Appointment of Counsel. If a defendant, appearing without counsel in a criminal proceeding, desires to obtain retained counsel, a reasonable continuance for arraignment, not to exceed one week at any one time, shall be granted for that purpose. If the defendant requests appointment of counsel by the court, or fails for an unreasonable time to appear with retained counsel, the assigned district judge or magistrate judge shall, subject to the applicable financial eligibility requirements, appoint counsel, unless the defendant elects to proceed without counsel and signs and files the court-approved form of waiver of right to counsel. In that case the judge or magistrate judge shall nevertheless designate counsel to advise and assist defendant to the extent defendant might thereafter desire. Appointment of counsel shall be made in accordance with the plan of this court adopted pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act of 1964 and on file with the clerk.
- b. Appearance and Withdrawal of Counsel. An attorney appearing for a defendant in a criminal case, whether retained or appointed, shall promptly file with the clerk a written appearance on the court-approved form. An attorney who has appeared may thereafter withdraw only upon notice to the defendant and all parties to the case, and an order of court finding that good cause exists and granting leave to withdraw. Failure of defendant to pay agreed compensation shall not be deemed good cause for withdrawal. If an attorney seeks to withdraw after the arraignment, such application shall be made to the assigned district judge. No magistrate judge shall relieve counsel after arraignment unless the district judge has specifically referred the application to withdraw to the magistrate judge.

Unless such leave is granted, the attorney shall continue to represent the defendant until the case is dismissed, the defendant is acquitted or convicted, or the time for making post-trial motions and for filing notice of appeal, as specified in Rule 4(b) F.R.App.P., has expired. If an appeal is taken, the attorney shall continue to serve until leave to withdraw is granted by the court having jurisdiction of the case or until other counsel is appointed by that court as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3006A and in

"Provisions for the Representation on Appeal of Defendants Financially Unable to Obtain Representation" as adopted by the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit.

- c. No attorney appointed by the court to represent a defendant under the Criminal Justice Act shall retain or hire any person related to that attorney by blood or marriage within the degree of first cousin including the relatives described in 5 U.S.C. §3110(a)(3), as an interpreter, investigator, paralegal, associate attorney, expert or other person to be compensated under the Criminal Justice Act. The court shall not approve any compensation under the Criminal Justice Act for the services of any such person.

If bail is set by a district judge after an adversary hearing, the magistrate judge must be specifically authorized by that district judge to thereafter hear bail review. If the conditions of release are not amended at the review hearing, the magistrate judge shall set forth in writing the reasons for continuing the requirements if requested by either party. Further review by a district judge shall be heard upon the record of the reasons for the bail set forth in writing by the magistrate judge, together with additional information that may be presented. Said hearing shall take place no sooner than 48 hours after the magistrate judge's final ruling.

collateral. Any proposed order exonerating a bond and reconveying property shall be initialed by an Assistant United States Attorney prior to submission of the proposed order to the court. Such order shall identify the collateral involved.

Criminal Rule 47.1 Motions

a. Motions Before Judge. All hearing dates for any motions shall be obtained from the courtroom deputy of the judge to whom the case is assigned.

b. Filing Moving Papers.

1. Filing. The original of all motions, including exhibits attached thereto, on behalf of any defendant, or on behalf of any moving party except the United States, shall be accompanied with two (2) conformed copies: one for the court's use and one for transmittal to the United States attorney by the clerk, and filed with the clerk, and filed with the clerk at least 14 days prior to the date for which the motion is noticed unless the court, for good cause and by order only, shortens such time. The noticed hearing date and time shall appear on the cover page of each motion, and any opposition, in the space opposite the caption, below the file number.

Service of a criminal motion upon the United States shall be presumed accomplished by delivering to the clerk's office the additional copy of the moving papers which the clerk shall place in a designated receptacle for pick-up by the United States attorney's office.

2. Service. Other criminal motions shall be served upon the adverse party, or the party's attorney, and filed with the clerk at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date for which the motion is noticed unless the court for good cause and by order only, shortens such time.

3. Accompaniments. Each motion shall be accompanied by a separate notice of motion and another separate document captioned memorandum of points and authorities or memorandum of law in support of the motion. Where appropriate a separate statement of material facts upon which the motion is based shall be supplied.

4. Untimely Motions. The clerk's office is directed not to file untimely motions and responses thereto without the consent of the judicial officer assigned to the case.

c. Time for Filing Opposition. Each party opposing the motion shall not later than seven (7) days prior to the hearing, serve upon the adverse party, or the party's attorney, and file with the clerk either an opposition containing a brief and complete statement of all reasons in opposition to the position taken by the movant, an answering memorandum of points and authorities and copies of all documentary evidence upon which the party in opposition relies; or, a written statement that the party will not oppose the motion.

d. Joinders in Motions.

1. The clerk shall refuse to accept for filing any joinder in motions if there are no pending motions on file.

2. Each joinder shall specifically identify the particular motion(s) to which the joinder applies and the basis the defendant's standing to raise such motion, where necessary.
- e. Length of Brief in Support of or in Opposition to Motions. Briefs of memoranda in support of or in opposition to all motions noticed for the same motion day shall not exceed twenty-five (25) pages in length total for all such motions without leave of a district court judge. No reply memorandum shall exceed ten (10) pages without leave of a district court judge.
 - f. Disposition after Motions are Calendared. Any time a case is calendared for motions and counsel for either side knows that a disposition is to take place, counsel has a duty to call the court clerk of the appropriate judge at the earliest available time to inform the court of the disposition.
 - g. Declarations in Support of and in Opposition to Criminal Motions.
 1. When Declarations Required. Criminal motions requiring a predicate factual finding shall be supported by declaration(s). When an opposing party contests a representation of fact contained in a moving declaration, the opposition shall likewise be supported by a declaration which places that representation into dispute. When an opposing party does not contest such a representation, but argues instead that additional facts render that representation moot or immaterial, the opposing party shall support its argument with declaration(s) setting forth such additional facts. The court need not grant an evidentiary hearing when either party fails to properly support its motion or opposition.
 2. Contents of Declarations. Each declaration shall set forth, under penalty of perjury, all facts then known and upon which it is contended the motion should be granted or denied. Each declaration shall show affirmatively that the declarant is competent to testify to the matter stated therein, shall avoid argument and conclusions of law and shall in all other respects contain only such representations as would be admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence.
 3. Timely Filing of Declarations. Declarations submitted in support of and in opposition to criminal motions shall be filed in a timely manner in accordance with the filing deadlines set forth in Criminal Local Rules 47.1.b and 47.1.c.
 4. Availability of Declarants. Each declarant in support of and in opposition to criminal motions shall be made available for cross-examination at the hearing of the motion, unless the opposing party does not dispute the facts contained in the declaration.

Criminal Rule 57.1

Sanctions for Noncompliance with Rules

- a. Failure of counsel or of any party to comply with these rules, with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, or with any order of the court may be ground for imposition by the court of any and all sanctions authorized by statute or rule or within the inherent power of the court.
- b. Failure to comply with these local rules governing criminal proceedings in this court shall not be a ground for dismissal of charges against the defendant.

- c. For violations of these Local Rules or of a specific court order, the court may, in imposing monetary sanctions, order that the monetary sanctions be paid to the nonappropriated fund of the court.

Criminal Rule 57.2 Assignment

- a. Criminal cases shall be numbered consecutively upon the filing of the indictment or information in each such action or proceeding. The judges shall, from time to time, determine, and indicate by formal order to the clerk the method by which each action or proceeding shall be assigned to a particular judge, to the end that over a period of time each judge shall be assigned substantially an equal amount of work. Neither the clerk nor any deputy clerk or magistrate judge shall have any discretion in determining the judge to whom any matter is assigned, the action of the clerk being ministerial only. The method of assignment chosen by the judges shall be such that the judge to whom any particular matter is to be assigned, in accordance with this rule, shall not be known by or disclosed to the clerk or magistrate judge or any member of their staff, or to any other person, until after such action or proceeding has been assigned.
- b. The judge to whom a case is assigned, or the chief judge of the district, may transfer such case at any time to a consenting judge in the interest of efficient administration of the judicial business of the district.
- c. No more than two ancillary cases shall be assigned to the judge before whom the principal case is pending without the judge's consent. When the U.S. attorney has reason to believe that a criminal action or proceeding before the court is related to an earlier action, the U.S. attorney shall so advise the clerk.

Criminal Rule 57.3 Assignment and Designation Procedures Matters to Magistrate Judges

Order of Designation and Assignment. A matter assigned to the magistrate judges either as a matter of course by the clerk of the United States District Court or by an order of special designation by a district judge of the court under 28 U.S.C. §636(b) or (c), precisely stating the nature of the matter, shall be assigned to a specific magistrate judge as follows:

 - 1. Criminal Matters. Where the case has previously been assigned to a specific magistrate judge during the course of criminal complaint duty, the matter will be referred to that magistrate judge.
 - 2. Misdemeanor Cases. All misdemeanor cases shall be assigned, upon the filing of an information, complaint of violation notice, or the return of an indictment, to a magistrate judge, who shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of 18 USC §3401 and Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

 - 6. Appointment of Counsel. Magistrate judges shall appoint counsel for indigent defendants. A magistrate judge may not relieve counsel for a defendant once the case has been set on the calendar of a district judge unless the district judge has specifically referred the matter to the magistrate judge for consideration of relieving counsel and appointing new counsel.

A magistrate judge shall not hear any application or motion in a criminal case on a district judge's calendar unless the district judge refers such application or matter to the magistrate judge for disposition.

b. General.

Nothing in these rules shall preclude the court, or a district judge from reserving any proceedings for conduct by a district judge, rather than a magistrate judge. The court, moreover, may by general order modify the method of assigning proceedings to a magistrate judge as changing conditions may warrant.
