GENERAL ORDER NO. 477

The court adopts the following procedures for defense counsel to follow, when bringing to the U.S. Marshal's attention, allegations made by a defendant regarding inadequate medical attention at a jail facility:

Defense counsel shall articulate, in writing and on letterhead, the details of the defendant's allegations and shall deliver or mail the letter to the U.S. Marshal's office. Upon completion of the investigation by the U.S. Marshal's office, defense counsel will be contacted and advised of the findings.
