Claims for compensation must be submitted electronically on the appropriate CJA form to the office of the Clerk of the Court using the CJA eVoucher System. All claims for attorney's fees for CJA appointed counsel and their associate and contract attorneys must be submitted at the same time.

Authority to approve vouchers submitted to the court for payment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(d)(5), including those submitted for investigator, interpreter, or other CJA related services, is delegated to the Clerk of the Court's voucher review staff, under the following circumstances:

- 1) The total amount claimed for counsel's representation and that of associate and contract attorneys combined is equal to or less than $3,500.00 per criminal representation, $1,000.00 per material witness representation and $1,000.00 per supervised release representation.
- 2) The total amount claimed for expert or other service providers is equal to or less than $800.00 per type of service.

The voucher reviewer as the approving official may not reduce or increase the amount payable for any reason other than to reflect a correction
