General Order No. 716

After considering any public comment, the Court will consider amending the following Local Rule as follows:

Criminal Local Rule 46.1

d. ~~Bail Review.~~ Bail Review and Bail Appeal.

1. Bail Review. A magistrate judge must hear the first bail review, including bail review after indictment unless bail was previously set in open court by a district judge after hearing. If bail is set by a district judge after an adversary hearing, the magistrate judge must be specifically authorized by that district judge to thereafter hear a bail review. If the conditions of release are not amended at the review hearing, the magistrate judge must set forth in writing the reasons for continuing the requirements if requested by either party. Further review by a district judge must be heard upon the record of the reasons for the bail set forth in writing by the magistrate judge, together with additional information that may be presented. The hearing must take place no sooner than 48 hours after the magistrate judge's final ruling. If no district judge has been assigned to the case, the clerk will randomly assign a district judge to hear the matter.

2. Appeal of Bail. Upon assignment of a district judge to a case, the assigned district judge will hear any subsequent bail appeal or non-routine requests for bail modification.

The period of public comment will be until November 1, 2019. Absent further order of this Court, the effective date of the Rule amendments is December 6, 2019. Any comments should be submitted to the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court, at 333 West Broadway, Room 420, San Diego, California 92101.
