Chief Judge No. 7

The Honorable Cathy Ann Bencivengo is appointed for a renewable term of three years to serve as liaison district court judge for human resources disputes to the Clerk's Office, the United States Probation Office, and the United States Pretrial Services Office in this District. Before terminating an employee, a Department head must consult with and obtain approval from the liaison judge. In the event the liaison judge is unavailable or is recused, the chief judge shall designate another district judge to act in place of the liaison judge. Any Equal Employment Opportunity/Employee Dispute Resolution matter will be heard by the chief judge or by another district judge designated by the chief judge.
