03/13/2015	984	Order Striking Document Number 6 from the Docket and Confirming Stay on the Filing of Answer. On February 27, 2015, the Court entered an order directing Defendants to file an answer within thirty (30) days. (Doc. No. 6.) However, in light of the parties' representations that a stay should continue with respect to the filing of answers in all cases related to Case No. 13cv1114 (Childress v. Amylin Pharmaceuticals LLC), the Court strikes its previous order, (Doc. No. 6), from the docket. Defendants in all cases related to Case No. 13cv1114 are not required to file an answer unless and until the Court issues an order lifting the stay on filing answers. This order does not apply to Case No. 13md2452. Signed by Judge Anthony J. Battaglia on 3/13/2015. The Court grants the unopposed motion and orders the following: In cases involving the prescription drug Kombiglyze XR and any of the four prescription drugs encompassed by MDL 13md2452, claims against MDL Defendants are to be severed and transferred to MDL 13md2452. All claims against non−MDL

		Defendants, Bristol−Myers Squibb and AstraZeneca Pharmaceuticals LP, are to remain on the docket under their individual case numbers and will not proceed as part of the MDL. All cases regarding Kombiglyze XR are to be related to Case No. 15cv0198, Elosegui v. Bristol−Myers Squibb Company and AstraZeneca Pharmaceuticals, LP. To assist the Clerk, Plaintiffs' counsel who have existing actions pending in the MDL that include claims relating to Byetta, Januvia, Janumet, and/or Victoza and any claims involving Kombiglyze XR are to include a copy of this Standing Order when filing actions in this Court. If an action is transferred to this Court by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation or is filed by counsel or a Plaintiff without prior notice of this standing order, Defendants are directed to notify the Clerk that this order should apply. Signed by Judge Anthony J. Battaglia on 6/23/2015. (All non−registered users served via U.S. Mail Service)(dls) (Entered: 06/24/2015)

09/11/2015	1433	ORDER: (1) Denying Plaintiffs' Opposition to Novo Nordisk Inc.'s Claim of Absolute Privilege and Request for Clawback; (2) Denying Novo Nordisk Inc.'s Claim of Absolute Privilege; and (3) Granting Request for Clawback re Doc. No. 1316 Motion. Plaintiffs' opposition to Novo's claim of absolute privilege and request for clawback of the LEADER data is denied. Novo's claim of absolute privilege is similarly denied, but finding the LEADER data otherwise protectable under the Court's inherent power to govern discovery and the parties' protective order, Novo's clawback request is granted. This order does not limit the use of completed, peer−reviewed and publicly available clinical trial data, such as the "TECOS" study, which does not implicate the concerns addressed above.
